A little about Oscar.....

Oscar is the owner and head-trainer of Elevated Canine Academy, a community-based dog-training resource and service-provider located in Los Angeles, California. Oscar and his team specialize in lifestyle-based obedience training, behavior modification such as aggression, and precision sports work; thus providing dog training services to both casual dog owners, as well as professionals within the competitive dog sport field.

Oscar has been training dogs professionally for the better part of a decade. He broke into the dog sport and protection world initially with Cane Corsos. He became involved in dog sports, and decoying and then began his journey in ring sports, certifying as both a Mondio Ring and French Ring decoy. He decoyed two Mondio Ring National trials.

Hungry for knowledge and to expand his skill set, he then joined the world of IPO, and given his extensive experience in drive work, he quickly excelled in the sport, titling his dog to IPO3 and becoming a certified regional level helper. Oscar was the helper at the 2016 USCA Southwest Regional. Oscar and his malinois, Guapo, came in 8th at the 2018 AWDF Championship missing joining the World Team by 3 points.

You will find Oscar to be talented, knowledgeable, with a top-notch work ethic and integrity. He values the importance of a bond with your dog and will work to bring the most out of your dog. In addition, he is a pleasure to work with.
